edt.BLUE PLATFORM AS A SERVICE

PROCESS. ANALYZE. REVIEW. PRODUCE. PRESENT.

ALL ON ONE EASY TO USE SOFTWARE PLATFORM.

discoveredt.com

edt.BLUE is a turnkey solution incorporating EDT's end-to-end software in your own private cloud.

edt.BLUE can be deployed in over 50 international locations within 48 hours. The choice of location and cloud provider (e.g. IBM, Microsoft Azure, Amazon) is yours.
Control your cases, and your costs.

edt.BLUE provides all the benfits and controls of an internal, on premises, installation of EDT software, without the hassles associated with hardware and software procurement and administration.

You maintain full control over your cases – upload and process your own data, perform quality checks, analyze and cull, promote data and batch it for review, set up new cases, users and their access privileges.

There are no per data processing or hosting fees and no user fees and there's no hardware or software to buy, support or maintain.

End-to-End functionality

edt.BLUE incorporates our easy to use software that enables you to control your projects entirely – from processing to analysis, review and production and presentation.

Partners

edt.BLUE is delivered via our accredited partner network. They help you to set up your own dedicated EDT instance and support you thereafter.

edt.BLUE can even be co-branded with your logo so your clients see it as your solution.

Rapid deployment. Easy expansion.

Your edt.BLUE private cloud can be set up quickly and easily and offers total elasticity, so you can expand and contract computing resources according to your fluctuating needs.

Our accredited partners can deploy this solution in any international IBM, Azure or Amazon cloud of your choice in a few hours, so you're up and running fast!

Pay only for what you use – and no more!

With edt.BLUE you only pay for what you use so you don't have wasted capital tied up in technology that is sitting around idle.

Our monthly pay-as-you-go fee is highly competitive without compromising quality or functionality.

Outsource the hassles.

Outsource the maintenance of servers and database infrastructure so you can focus on your core business – servicing your clients!
